I go, Annie darling,
 But leave thee in sorrow,
 I go for thy sake far away.
 Then bid me good-by
 With a smile on the morrow,
 And cheer me with blessings, I pray.
 I'll think of thee ever,
 And pray for thee only,
 As over the waters I roam;
 I'll tarry not, darling,
 And leave thee all lonely,
 But hasten again to my home.

Chorus.

3.

Out, out on the ocean,
 Away o'er the billow,
 My heart on its purpose still bent,
 My brow shall find rest,
 When I seek my lone pillow,
 In knowing that thou art content.
 Cheer up, Annie darling,
 Break off from thy sorrow,
 'Tis sad that our parting must be;
 But give me thy smile
 When I leave thee to-morrow
 To sail the seas over for thee.

Chorus.

The most prominent feature of the work is the choice selection of pretty melodies, particularly adapted to each key, and arranged as easy and interesting exercises. The most useful and prominent chords in each key are given in full, by the study of which the learner is enabled to play the proper accompaniment to almost any melody, with great facility and ease. There is nothing omitted that is requisite to make a good and skilful performer, and nothing introduced but what is necessary in the practice of the ordinary run of good compositions.
